Renovation of the existing main building at WHO headquarters in Geneva

The World Health Organization (WHO) presents its compliments to Member States and in accordance with decision WHA69(18), to proceed with the renovation of the main building at WHO headquarters, has the honour to inform Member States about the launch of an international call for expressions of interest from general contractors experienced in the renovation of buildings. It is intended that approximately 10 companies will be preselected and subsequently invited to submit final tenders.

The rules for participation are laid down in the Call for expressions of interest which can be downloaded from the United Nations Global Marketplace (UNGM) procurement portal at the following internet address: <https://www.ungm.org/Public/Notice/74368>.

Interested companies are invited to submit candidatures in English or French by Monday 15 October 2018 at 10:00 a.m. Geneva time.

WHO encourages Member States to transmit this information in a timely manner to the employers' organizations concerned in their respective country.

The World Health Organization takes this opportunity to renew to Member States the assurance of its highest consideration.
